DGI Asim Malik chaired a high-level meeting earlier today, in connection with the quoted post.

Sources suggest a growing rift between Army Chief Gen. Asim Munir's agenda to dismantle the current political setup to rule himself and the PDM parties' policy of appeasement.

Reports also indicate that the ISI is actively probing corruption scandals involving the present government, raising questions about internal power plays and the future of the ruling alliance.

Further details to follow. Stay tuned!
